St. Mary School – Mount Vernon Tuition Assistance

The tuition assistance fund is established to assist Catholic families with specific needs who are unable to meet tuition payments. Applications will be reviewed and prioritized according to need and resources available.

Application Process:

Catholic families may apply for tuition assistance by completing the attached application form. All families are asked to make their first month's tuition payment at school registration. Tuition assistance requests will be reviewed and families will be notified prior to start of school.

Criteria:

The following criteria will be used to establish priority ranking for applicants:

1. Number of children attending Catholic School
2. Family income
3. Household expenses
4. Demographic and economic issues impacting on the community
5. Traumatic Hardship
6. Enrolled in Illinois Free/Reduced Lunch Program

Please complete and return this form by May 31st.
